Please refer to the price list for commercial and private use, listed below.

Purchasing Procedures

- All orders must be prepaid. All sales are final.
- All responsibility regarding questions of copyright or invasion of privacy that may arise in the use of material that has been reproduced by the Lake County Public Library must be assumed by the user.
- The Lake County Public Library gives no exclusive rights for the use of its material. Permission is granted for a one-time use of an image requires the written permission of the Library and the payment of additional fees.
- The Colorado Mountain History Collection Executive Board reserves the right: to limit the number of copies to be made of any single photograph; to restrict the publication of certain rare or valuable photographs; to ensure that photographs from its collection are reproduced in good taste; and to charge a higher fee than normal for a small number of unique photographs.
- It is the responsibility of the user to credit the Lake County Public Library. Proper credit must be given to the creator if known. The preferred citation is as follows: Lake County Public Library, Colorado Mountain History Collection, Creator (if known, Call Number).
- The Lake County Public Library does not allow its images to be used out of context or modified in any way that affects the historical integrity of the image.
- Special requests not specifically mentioned within the above procedures will be considered and subject to special agreements. We reserve the right to charge additional fees for items that pose unusual difficulty in scanning.
- The Library requests, and is appreciative of receiving, a free copy of the item containing the material that is published or produced. The Library reserves the right to require a publication proof prior to final use approval.
- Negatives will not be loaned nor rented to individuals wishing to make their own prints. All prints must be purchased from the Library.

Notice Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies and other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish reproductions. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be used "for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a reproduction for purposed in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
